MEMORANDUM

TO: Mayor England
   Vice Mayor Kostka
   Commissioner George
   Commissioner Samora
   Commissioner Rumrell

FROM: Max Royle, City Manager

DATE: February 11, 2020

SUBJECT: Use of City Public Meeting Rooms: Consideration of New Policy

INTRODUCTION

There are two reasons for this agenda topic: first, to make you aware of the City’s public meeting facilities and how heavily they are used; second, to suggest to you a policy that will make the rooms available to more groups.

The City’s meeting facilities are the room in the southwest corner of city hall and Building C, the former post office, which is located on the west side of the city hall parking lot. The Commission meeting room is not included as one of the City’s public meeting facilities because Commission policies restrict its use to meetings of governmental agencies.

There has been increasing demand by groups to use the City’s two rooms. This demand is likely because public meeting space on the island is limited. The Anastasia Baptist Church no longer allows non-church groups to use its facilities; groups can use the meeting room in the public library that’s in the Sea Grove subdivision but only when the library is open. The City’s meeting facilities can be used not only during normal workdays but also in evenings and on weekends when the city hall is closed.

Before the new city hall was designed and built in 2000-01, the City had no community center or public meeting space other than the Commission room in the old city hall. That room was the only space available for meetings by civic and non-profit groups, such as the Civic Association. To provide more meeting space, the City Commission when the new city hall was designed in 2000 approved the building having a public meeting room in addition to the City Commission room.

Building C, where the post office was once located, originally was intended to be a garage where lawn mowing and other equipment for maintenance of the city hall/police station complex would be stored. In 2004, the City Commission approved the conversion of it to a U.S. Postal Service facility. When the post office moved out of it in 2008, the Commission approved the facility being converted to a public meeting room. Small groups now use it.

CURRENT POLICIES

The use of the City’s two meeting rooms is governed by the following policies in the City Commission’s Policies and Procedures Manual:

1. Any person or organization applying to use a City facility must sign a hold harmless agreement.
